

UoNA Student Code of Conduct

Students are expected to behave and treat others on campus as professional scholars. Students attend the University from all parts of the world and from many varied backgrounds. This diversity provides a rich environment for the free exploration and expression of ideas, and students are expected to participate fully and to uphold the right of others to do the same.

Students are expected to abide by all public laws and generally accepted professional standards, to comply with all regulations and policies of the University, and to conduct themselves professionally when interacting with fellow students, faculty, and staff. The University reserves the right to place a student on disciplinary warning, probation, suspension, or dismissal, who engages in unsatisfactory conduct such as dishonesty; failure to adhere to rules and regulations; destruction or theft of property; participation in activity that impinges on the rights of others; or possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs at any time on these premises.

Violations of conduct should be reported to the Director of Student Services. The Director, who

Appeals Process.

Students may submit a request for reconsideration of a grade if they have extenuating circumstances and file the request within two weeks of the occurrence. The request must be filed by a college representative, one of the instructor's representatives, or a student while still maintaining communication with the instructor. In cases where the issue has not been satisfactorily resolved by the instructor, the student may appeal to the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences to address the issue.
